MOVIES

CADFAEL

This drama series is based on the best-selling books by Ellis Peters. Cadfael, a monk at the grand Shrewsbury Abbey in the 12th century, has only recently entered the monastic life, having turned his back on the great crusades where he served as both a soldier and a sailor. Cadfael still cannot suppress his natural inquisitiveness, nor can he resist a mystery.

COLD FEET

Follow the lives and loves of six thirty-somethings in a heartwarming and comic drama as they try to find true love—or at least keep their relationships on track. In this wry and funny look at a generation as confused as it is liberated by the choices it faces, will the chill in their feet put out the passion that burns in their hearts?

MAIGRET

Created by flamboyant author Georges Simenon, pipe-smoking Chief Inspector Maigret is one of this century's classic fictional sleuths. The sardonic but compassionate Commissaire, with his unique brand of cool appraisal, never fails to pierce straight to the heart of the crime.

NORTHERN LIGHTS

This comedy-drama centers on two lifelong friends locked in an endless cycle of competition since childhood. Best friends Howie and Colin are happily married to sisters, living next door to each other and even working for the same company. They test their friendship and push their wives' patience to the limit as they strive to outdo each other.

THE PRISONER

“The Prisoner” remains unique in the world of television: a taut psycho-thriller about a secret agent—known only as No. 6—who retires and finds himself thrown into a Kafka-esque world of mindplay and enigma.

THE STREET

This drama series follows the lives of neighbors living on a Manchester, England, street. A bored wife and mother, a man convinced his life will end with retirement, and warring sisters—all drawn back together by a marriage breakdown—are just some of the lives of passion and despair into which we are irresistibly drawn.
