MARCH 2010

Young Adult Calendar

Programs are open to Wayne residents only, and are held at the Main branch of the Wayne Public Library. Registration can be done in person or by phone beginning at 9:00 a.m. on the registration date. Note: If you are unable to attend a program, please kindly call the library in advance. This will allow others on the waiting list to attend the program, as well as prevent waste of materials.

TEEN TECH WEEK®

Monday, March 7—13, 2010

Teen Tech Week 2010 is March 7-13! Teen Tech Week is a national initiative aimed at teens, librarians, educators, parents, and other concerned adults meant to encourage teens to take advantage of libraries' nonprint resources. The 2010 theme — Learn Create Share @ Your Library — fosters teen creativity and positions the library as a physical and virtual place for safe exploration of the many types of technology available at libraries, including DVDs, music, gaming, video production, online homework help, social networking, tech workshops, audiobooks and more.

Wednesday, April 7th, 2010 2:00-4:00 p.m. (approx.)

A young boy named Darren Shan meets a mysterious man at a freak show who turns out to be a Vampire. After a series of events, Darren must leave his normal life and go on the road with the Cirque du Freak and become a Vampire. He must now find a way from destroying his last trace of humanity. Open to young adults in grades 6 & up. Please provide your own snacks and drinks. This movie is Rated PG-13 (for sequences of intense supernatural violence and action, disturbing images, thematic elements and some language) and runs for 109 minutes. Registration date: Friday, March 26th, 2010.

Kids Helping Kids

Tutoring services by the Wayne Valley High School National Honors Society takes place in the Children's Department of the Main Library for middle school and high school students who attend schools that feed into Wayne Valley. Sessions are held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 3:00—4:30 p.m. and are held on days when there is school in Wayne. Students may attend one or both days. Please email wvkidshelping-kids@gmail.com if you would like tutoring services, so that tutors can accommodate each individual student's needs.
