Financial elder abuse involves a family member, friend, or professional that illegally exploits an older individual for their monetary assets and property for their own financial gain. There are various risk factors that would put a senior at a higher chance of experiencing financial abuse whether from a scammer or an existing relationship. With the increasing threat of elder financial exploitation, it is important for individuals to be aware of the warning signs to prevent such abuse for yourself or a loved one. This seminar is designed to bring awareness to a growing concern because education is the best way to prevent an incident.
